All believers stayed together, share everything with each other. People sold everything own and gave each person depending their need.

Daily believers went-to temple, worship together. Celebrate and eat together in their homes. Believers praised God, all people liked them. Everyday Lord saved more people, new members join group believers.

Praise God, Father of our Lord Jesus. God's mercy gives us new life. This life gives hope through Jesus' resurrection from death. These blessings cannot be destroyed. They are kept in heaven for you, and are guarded with God's power. Your salvation is ready for you when time finishes.

You should rejoice! Maybe now you must suffer, but this proves your faith is true. This faith is more precious than gold. Faith will bring you praise, glory, and honor when Jesus appears.

Even though you can't see Jesus, you love Him and you believe in Him. You rejoice, filled with glory, because you are receiving your faith's goal . . . What? . . . your salvation.
