Collection of Readings — Cycle C
by the Catholic Deaf Community of Oregon
62 years American Sign Language print conversion

ICDA.45.Portland@gmail.com

Dedicated to the many hands and eyes that helped to transcribe the Catholic Liturgical Readings into ASL print.

These readings are transcriptions. American Sign Language is a beautiful language for the Deaf Community, with a grammatical order different from English. For many Deaf Catholics, reading the English Liturgical scripture is difficult and especially when trying to read and sign at the same time.

Sometimes an English word has many sign options: “rule” — a commandment or to-govern; or “before” — first then second, or in-front-of. The ICDA of the Catholic Deaf Community of Oregon spent 30 years writing out the Liturgical Readings to use the ASL sign that matched the correct English meaning, and to flip word order to match ASL grammar.

These readings are not a translation or an interpretation. They are ASL print for reading the scripture with ease; both in sign language and to follow the Catholic Liturgical Year. May these help us all to study and prepare for the Mass. Thank you to all our transcribers.

Glory to God in the highest!

Second Reading

Hebrews 1:1-6

Reading taken-from letter writer St. Paul.

Brothers and Sisters:

In-the-past God spoke-to our people through prophets. God spoke many times – different, different ways.

Now, today, God speaks-to us through His Son.

Son (Jesus) received all things (knowledge, power, wisdom, love . . . ) from Father.

Jesus shows Father's glory perfectly, continues all things with His powerful word.

Finished, Jesus made pure and all sin removed. Jesus sat right-hand-side Almighty Majesty (God), Jesus, himself, above all angels; all angels respect Jesus, most high.

Jesus name most excellent above all angels.

God say to Jesus, never to angels:

You are my son; this day I have begotten you.

Or another:

I will be father to him, and he will be son to me.

And another, God leads the firstborn into the world, God says:

Let all the angels of God worship him.

Long-ago, beginning world, Word (Jesus) with God; Himself true God, ever-since beginning. All things, He made; without Him, have nothing.

Jesus gives life; this life cause light for all people. Light shines during darkness; darkness can't conquer.

Man named John, God sent. Himself inform people Jesus true light, help people believe. John himself not light, but witness for Jesus...
Himself true light coming-to world.

Jesus came-to world, same world He made, but world didn't-know Him. People not accept Him. But few people accept; He gave-them power become children of God because believe-in His name.....
Word (Jesus) became human, lived here Earth with us. We saw His glory, glory same Father's only Son, full grace and truth.

John proclaim about Him, said, "This person I preach-about before, Himself more-important than me."

From Him we receive MUCH grace! Moses gave-us Law, but Jesus gives-us grace and truth. No person can see God, but only Son—

(response) GLORY TO YOU, LORD (+ forehead, +lips, +heart, +hands)

Early one morning, Jesus left Mount of olives and went to Temple; many people came to him. Jesus sat, taught them. Teachers of Law came forward, brought woman who sinned adultery. They forced her to-stand in front of all; say-to Jesus, "Teacher, this woman sin adultery, sex with man not her husband. Law Moses tell-us throw stones, kill woman who does this. What you say?" (Teachers try trap Jesus, find something against him.)

Jesus kneel, began write in dirt with his finger. They ask him again.
Jesus stood, said, “Any person has no sin, throw first stone at her.”
Again Jesus kneel, write in dirt. When teachers heard what Jesus said, they left one-by-one, first older people until all gone.

Then, Jesus left alone with woman. Jesus stood and said, “Woman, where all people? No person condemns you guilty?” She answers, “None, sir.” Jesus say, “I not condemn you guilty. You can go, but do not sin again.”

Palm Sunday

First Reading:

Isaiah 50: 4-9

Reading from book name Isaiah

The Lord God gave-me the words of wisdom. Now, I know how to-speak-to and inspire weary people. Morning after morning He opens heart. I have not rebelled, I have not turned-back. I suffered, allowing people to-beat-me and pluck-my-beard. I did not protect my face from their spitting.

The Lord God is my help; I am not ashamed, I will continue strong. I know I will not be ashamed

God is near and supports me.

If someone wants to-oppose me, let us go before God together. Who argues my right? Let that person confront me.

The Lord is my help; no one can prove me wrong.

Psalm 22

My God, my God, why leave me alone?

(copy) MY GOD, MY GOD, WHY LEAVE ME ALONE?

Many people see me, mock me and say,

“He depends-on Lord; wanting save him.

If God really loves him, save him, will.”

MY GOD, MY GOD, WHY LEAVE ME ALONE

Yes, many evil people come for-for? Hurt me.

They crucify me, pierce hands and feet.

Every bone in my body hurts.

MY GOD, MY GOD, WHY LEAVE ME ALONE?

People take my clothes, gamble (throw dice) for my coat.

But You Lord, with me, God my help.

MY GOD, MY GOD, WHY LEAVE ME ALONE?

I proclaim You name presence friends,

With all people I praise You.

All you yourselves love Lord, praise Him.

All children God, give Him glory.

MY GOD, MY GOD, WHY LEAVE ME ALONE?

Second Reading:

Philippians 2:6-11

(response) SAME YOUR SPIRIT

Reading from gospel writer Luke

(response) GLORY TO YOU, LORD (+ forehead, +lips, +heart, +hands)

Four Readers: Narrator, Christ, Voice, Crowd

Narrator: Happen now hour important, Passover table ready, Jesus sit at top of table, and the apostles around him. He said to them:

Jesus: “I cherish to-eat this Passover with you. Soon I suffer. I tell you, I will not eat again until it happen in the Kingdom of God.”

Narrator: Then lifting cup, prayed blessing and said:

Jesus: “Take this cup and share among you; I tell you, now-to-future I will not drink fruit vine (grapes) until reign of God comes-happen-finish.”

Narrator: Then lifting Bread and giving thanks, he broke bread and gave to disciples, saying:

Jesus: “This real my body given for you. Do this-again in remembrance of me-Jesus.”

Narrator: After eating, Jesus did same with Cup, saying:

Jesus: “This covenant-promise is new covenant in my blood. Will be shed for you. The hand my betrayer with me here at table. The Son of Man following the plan of God, but woe [great sadness and guilt] to that man betray me future.”

Narrator: Then, the disciples began argue, which disciple would betray Jesus. Next, argument began between disciples, who would be remembered as greatest disciple. Jesus said:

Jesus: Kings of gentiles reign-control over their people. Those who exercise authority over them are called their benefactors. But cannot be that way with you-disciples. Let greater disciple become as the junior, become leader same as servant. Which is the greater? Person relaxing-sit at table or person serves the meal? Is it not the one who relax-sit at the table? But I stand middle of you, I stand same-as servant to you. You are followers continue stand loyal by me. Stand with me during my temptations. My responsibility, I decide and order the control my Father has ordered to me. In my Kingdom, you will eat and drink at my table, and you will sit on thrones judging the 12 tribes of Israel. Simon, Simon! Remember, Satan asked for you, to sift you same as wheat. But I have pray-finished for you, your faith strong and never fail. Same then, you must support your brothers.”

Voice: “Lord, at your side I ready to-face imprisonment and death.”

Jesus: “I-tell-you Peter, you will deny me three times before the rooster crows today. Three times you will deny me, you will say you do not know me.”

Jesus: “When I sent-you on mission without purse or traveling bag or sandals, do-finish need of anything?”

Crowd: “Not a thing.”

Jesus: “However, the man with purse must carry; the same with traveling bag. And man without sword must sell his coat and buy a sword. Written in Scripture, ‘He was counted among the wicked,’ and this, I-tell-you, must come-to-be fulfilled, how? In me. All-that-has-to-do-with-me approaches climax-end.”

Crowd: “Lord, here are two swords!”

Jesus: “Enough.”

Narrator: Then, same as many times in past, Jesus went-out and traveled to the Mount of Olives; his disciples accompanied him. Arriving at the Mount of Olives, Jesus-said-to-them,

Jesus: “Pray-to-God you will not be tested.”

Narrator: Jesus left the disciples and walked stone’s throw apart, then knelt and prayed these words:

Jesus: “Father, if Your will, take this cup from me; but not my will, but Yours be done.”

Narrator: Angel then appeared-to-him from heaven to-strengthen Jesus. In his suffering, he prayed with increased intensity, and his sweat became same-as drops blood falling-to-the-ground. Then,

Jesus rose from prayer and went to his disciples. He found them asleep, exhausted with grief. Jesus said to the disciples:

Jesus: “Why are you sleeping? Wake-up and pray that you may not experience to temptations and testing.”

Narrator: While Jesus was speaking, crowd came, led by man named Judas, one of the Twelve disciples. Judas approached Jesus to embrace-hug him. Jesus said to him,

Jesus: “Judas, why do you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?”

Narrator: Then Jesus’ companions saw what was happen next, they said,

Crowd: “Lord, shall we use sword?”

Narrator: One disciple struck the high priest’s servant and cut off his right ear. Jesus answered their question,

Jesus: “Enough!”

Narrator: Then, Jesus touched the ear and healed the man. But Jesus said-to the chief priests, the chiefs of the Temple guard, and the ancients— to those people against him—

Jesus: “Am I criminal? Must you come chase-capture me with swords and clubs? I was with you day after day in the Temple, you never raised a hand against me. But this hour of darkness— now capture!”

Narrator: They arrest and led him away, brought him to house of high priest. Peter followed at a distance. Later, they— guards, priests, and elders lighted a fire in middle of courtyard and were sitting beside it. Peter sat among them. A servant girl saw Peter sitting in the light of the fire. She stared long time at Peter, then said,

Voice: “This man was with Jesus.”

Narrator: Peter denied, saying,

Voice: “Woman, I do not know Jesus.”

Narrator: A little time later, someone else saw Peter and said,

Voice: “You are Followers too.”

Narrator: But Peter said, “No, not I!”

Narrator: Around one hour later, another spoke strongly:

Voice: “This man was true with Jesus, this man from Galilea.”

Narrator: Peter responded, “Friend, I don’t know what you say”

Narrator: Immediately, while Peter said this, a rooster crowed. The Lord turned around and looked at Peter. Peter remembered the word Jesus spoke to him,

Jesus: “Peter, you will deny me three times before the rooster crows today. Three times you will deny me, you will say you do not know me.”

Narrator: Peter went out wept-wept-wept. At same time, the men guarding Jesus amused themselves. First they blindfolded Jesus, slapped him, and then teased him:

Crowd: “Play the prophet; who struck you?”

Narrator: And Guards encouraged many other insulting words at him. At daybreak, the council--elders, chief priests, and scribes--assembled again. They had brought Jesus in-front-of their council, and said,

Crowd: “Tell us, are you the Messiah?”

Jesus replied: “If I-tell-you, you will not believe me, and if I question you, you will not answer. I can only say: ‘From now on, the Son of Man will sit at the right hand of the Power of God.’”

Narrator: The leaders asked in chorus: “So you are the Son of God?”

Jesus answered: “You say I am.”

Narrator: Crowd said, “Do we need witnesses? We have heard from own mouth.”

Narrator: Then, all leaders rose-up and led him in-front-of Pilate.

They started the prosecution by saying, “We found this man betraying our nation, opposing the payment of taxes to Ceasar, and calling himself the Messiah, a king.”

Narrator: Pilate asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?”

Jesus answered: “That is your title.”

Narrator: Pilate reported-to-the chief priests and crowds, “I do not find a case against this man.”

Narrator: But the crowd insisted: “He stirs-up the people by his teaching throughout the whole of Judea, from Galilee, where he began, to this very place.”

Narrator: Hearing this, Pilate asked if Jesus was from Galilea; because Jesus was from Galilea, he was under Herod’s jurisdiction/ authority. Pilate sent Jesus to Herod. Herod also happened-to-be in Jerusalem at the time. Herod was extremely pleased to-see Jesus.

From the reports about Jesus, Herod wanted to-see Jesus. For a long time Herod was hoping to-see Jesus work miracles. Herod questioned Jesus for a long time, but Jesus did not answer. The chief priests and scribes stood near, to-accuse him with strong feeling. Herod and his guards then mocked and insult Jesus. Next, they put a magnificent robe on Jesus and sent him back to Pilate. In the past, Herod and Pilate, were set-against each-other, became friends that day. Pilate then called together the chief priests, the ruling class, and the people, and said to them:

Voice: “You brought this man, Jesus, to me. You said he encourages evil with the people. I have examined him in your presence and have no charge against him because of your allegations. Also, Herod has no charges against Jesus. Therefore Herod sent him back-to us; obviously this man, Jesus, has done nothing to-deserve death. Therefore, I plan to-release him after I have teach him a lesson.”

Narrator: The whole crowd cried out, “Away with this man; release Barabbas for us!”

Narrator: This Barabbas was thrown in prison for causing an uprising in city, and for murder. Pilate spoke to them again, for he wanted Jesus to-be-the-one he released.

But they shouted back,

Crowd: “Crucify Jesus, crucify Jesus!”

Narrator: Pilate said to the crowd for the third time, “Why is Jesus guilty, what did he do? I can’t find anything deserving death penalty. I will then punish and release him.”

Narrator: But they demanded with loud cries that he be-crucified, and their shouts increased in violence. Pilate then decreed that their demands would-be-done/finished. He released Barrabas from prison. Barrabas was freed from insurrection and murder. And delivered Jesus as they wished. As the guards led Jesus away, the guards ordered Simon Cyrenean (worker coming from the fields.) The guards put a crossbeam on Simon’s shoulder to carry behind Jesus. A great crowd of people followed Jesus, including women who beat their breasts and cried for him. Jesus turned-to-them and said,

Jesus: “Daughters of Jerusalem, do-not weep for me. Weep for yourselves and your children. The days are coming when they will say, 'Happy are mothers with no children, their wombs never give birth and breasts never nurse a baby.' Then they will say-to the mountains, 'Fall on us,' and to the hills, 'Cover us.' If they do these things in the green wood, what will happen in the dry?"

Narrator: Two others criminals were led with Jesus to be crucified. They came-to a hill called Skull Place, they crucified Jesus and also with the criminals, one on his right and the other on his left.

Jesus said: "Father forgive them: they do not know what they are doing."

Narrator: The guards divided Jesus garments, rolling dice for them. The people stood watching, and the leaders mocked Jesus, saying, "He saved others, let him save himself, if he is the Messiah of God, the chosen one."

Narrator: The soldiers also made-fun-of him, coming forward to offer him their sour wine, saying, "If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself."

Narrator: There was an inscription over his head: 'THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.' One of the criminals hanging in crucifixion blasphemed him,

Voice: “If you are the Messiah? Then, save yourself and us.”

Narrator: The other one criminal rebuked (scolded) the first criminal:

Voice: “Don’t you have fear of God? See you have the same sentence? But we deserve it. We are paying the price for what we’ve done wrong, but this man (Jesus) did nothing wrong.”

Narrator: Then, criminal said, “Jesus, remember me when you enter upon your reign.”

Jesus replied: I promise you: today you will be with me in paradise.”

Narrator: Now it is midday, and darkness came-over the whole land until mid afternoon, next with an eclipse of the sun. The curtain in the temple sanctuary was torn in two. Jesus uttered loud cry and said,

“Father, into your hands I commend my Spirit.”

Narrator: And Jesus breathed finished.

(All kneel for short time.)

Narrator: The centurion-guard, seeing happen, gave-glory-to God by saying, “True, this man innocent.”

Narrator: After the crowd assembled, witnessed happen-happen-happen, they returned beating their chests. All Jesus' friends and woman, travel together from Galilee, together standing short distance watching everything. [Man named Joseph, righteous and holy member from Sanhedrin. Joseph not involved with disciples or plan. Joseph from Arimathea, Jewish town, and waiting for the reign of God. Joseph approach Pilate, request Jesus' body. He took-it-down off cross, wrapped-it in special linen soft white cloth, and laid-it inside tomb — rock cave, no one other buried past. Now day Preparation for Sabbath, soon sunset and Sabbath begins. Women with Jesus from Galilee followed behind Joseph. Women saw tomb and watch how Jesus body buried. Then, Women went-back home to-prepare spices and perfumes. They observed Sabbath day of rest, accordance-follow Jewish law.]

Before Passover holy day began, Jesus knew His time suffering arrived. He must leave this world, go again to Father. Because Jesus loved His people in this world, He continued love fully to-end.

During evening meal, devil gave Judas Iscariot idea: betray Jesus.

Judas was son of Simon.

Jesus knew Father gave all things. Jesus knew Himself same-from God and now goes back-to God.

During evening meal, Jesus stood-up and took-off robe. Took a towel and tied-that-around-His-waist. Jesus poured water into a bowl and began washing feet of His friends. Jesus dried their feet with that towel. Then, Jesus came-to Simon Peter.

Peter: “Lord, You want-to wash my feet?”

Jesus: “Now, you don’t-understand, but later you understand, will.”

Peter: “You wash my feet, never!”

Jesus: “If I don’t wash you, you cannot share My work.”

Peter: “Not only my feet, but wash my hands and face also.”

Jesus: “Everyone with bath finished clean; only must wash feet. You all clean, but not all of you. Not all of you here are clean.”

Jesus washed their feet, put-on His robe, sat-down.

Jesus: “you understand this thing I recently did for you? You name Me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord.’ You are right because I am your Teacher and Lord. Now, if I washed your feet, Myself Teacher and Lord, then you must also wash feet for each-other. I gave-you this example.

Now, you do same-as Me.”

Isaiah 52:13-53:12

Reading from book name Isaiah

See, my servant shall do well,

he will-be raised high and greatly praised.

While many were surprised at him—

so scared his look — change not look-like man, and his appearance different from other people—

So shall many nations eyes see,

because of him kings shall stand before mouth-fall-open

For those people not-yet tell them doesn't-matter see, those people not-yet hear, doesn't-matter.

Who would believe what we have heard?

Lord reveal to who?

Servant grew-up like a sapling before him,

like a shoot from the parched earth;

There, his person, we want-to look-at him, no,

his appearance that would attract us to-him, no

People rejected and avoided him, a man have suffering, weak experience,

One of people hide-from him get away—honor not

Same-time our weak hurts him,

our sufferings that he take-up accept.

While we consider him as hit/stricken,

as one God ignores and suffer.

But he was pierced for our offenses, burdened by our sins;

He whipped, suffer,

produce heal for us.

We astray like sheep, each following own way;

But Lord gave-him our guilt.

Though he suffer, he give-up and opened not his mouth;

Same-as lamb led-to slaughter or a sheep front-of shearers,

he was silent and didn't open mouth.

Oppressed and condemned, he was taken away,

and who would have thought more of his future?

When he suffers, die,

for sins of his people.

A grave give-him among wicked and a burial place with evildoers,

Doesn't-matter done no wrong or never lied.

(But the Lord allowed his suffering.)

If happen offer life for sin,

He shall see his descendants have long life, and the Lord, His will accomplished through him.

Because of affliction he sees new life;

With his suffering, many are saved and their guilt he accepts.

Therefore, I will give-him life, and have good things share,

Because he surrendered himself to-death;

He takes-away the sins of many and receive pardon/forgiveness for offenses.

Jesus, with followers, go-to garden, enter. Place all followers know well, also Judas. Chief priests and Pharisees tell soldiers, go-there. Judas leads soldiers, have torches, weapons; arrive.

Jesus know things happen, will and steps forward saying, “Who do you want?”

Soldiers: “Jesus from Nazareth.”

Jesus: “That is me.”

Soldiers, officer, Jewish guards arrest Jesus, tie-him-up, lead-to Annas (Father-in-Law for high priest Caiphas). Peter and other follower stay close. Near the gate, a servant girl says, “You follow that man?”

Peter: “Not me.”

Night cold, servants, guards stand near the fire to-keep warm. Peter joins them.

There Annas questions Jesus.

Jesus answers, "I finish speak before any person pay-attention.”

Place Jews meet, in synagogue or Temple area, I teach there always.

My preaching secret, never! Why question me? Question people pay-attention-to me. They know I finish say.”

Guard, standing near, hit Jesus and said, “Why do you answer like that?”

Jesus said, “If I finish say anything wrong, prove; but if I speak truth, why hit-me?”

Next, Jesus is sent-to high priest, Caiaphas.

During same-time Peter stand near fire.

Person says: “You his follower?”

Peter deny: “Me, not!”

Other person say: “I see you in garden with him?”

Peter deny again. Same moment, the cock crowed.

At sunrise, soldiers lead Jesus to praetorium (Roman Official’s home). Jewish people cannot go-in there, Roman building.

Pilate come-out, ask: “What accusations are against this man?”

Answer: “He criminal, reason we bring him here,”

Pilate: “You judge him yourself follow your law, why not?”

Answer: “Can’t order someone to-die!”

Pilate goes-into building, calls Jesus to-come and asks: “You king for Jews?”

Jesus: “My kingdom belong world here not. If kingdom here, my people fight, save me from Jews. But no, my kingdom not here.”

Pilate: “So, you true king?”

Jesus: “You say me king. Reason born, reason come here world, witness truth. Any person accepts, live truth, understand me.”

Pilate: “Truth, mean what?”

Pilate left, went-out-to Jews: “Myself, find nothing against this man. Recall your custom, I free someone now Passover time. Want me free king Jews?”

Shout: “We want Barabbas, not him!”

Next, Pilate order Jesus scourged. Finish, show Jesus to people.

Pilate: “Look-at-the man!”

Jewish leaders shout: “Crucify him! Crucify him!”

Pilate: “Have no reason, crucify him yourselves.”

Jews answer: “Have law explain Jesus must die because say himself God His Son!”

Pilate goes-into praetorium, asks Jesus: “You refuse speak, why? I have power free you or crucify you.”

Jesus: “You have power, why? God gave-you.”

Pilate brought Jesus outside, sat judgement seat, named Stone Pavement, Hebrew word, Gabbatha: “Look-at your king!”

Jews shout: “Away with him, crucify him, crucify him!”

Finally, Pilate orders Jesus to-be-crucified. Soldiers lead Jesus, himself carry cross to area named Place of Skull, Hebrew word Golgotha. There crucify Jesus, plus two others; Jesus in middle, one each side.

Finish crucify, four soldiers took clothes, divide among selves. Had tunic, one piece no seam, bet (throw dice) see who gets. Follow Scripture: “Divide my clothes, bet for them.”

Near cross, mother stand, also Mary wife Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. Jesus see mother and follower he love, says, “Woman, there your son”; to follower, “There your mother.”

Jesus knows everything finished for follow scripture, says, “I thirst.” Then, says, “Finished.”

Jesus bows his head, spirit give-to God.

Later, Joseph from city Arimathea, ask Pilate, “May I take-down body?”

Pilate: "Yes." Joseph and Nicodemus take-down body. Near garden, have new tomb, not-yet used. Because Jewish preparation day,
Jesus' body is-put there.

I, John, looked and saw many angels around throne. Also saw four living things and older leaders. Many, many angels cried-out:

“Lamb before killed, true worthy receive power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, praise!”

Then, every living thing in heaven and earth, under the earth and in sea—everything in universe—cried out:

“To One sitting on throne, and to Lamb, all praise, honor, glory, and power forever and ever.”

Four living things answered “Amen!” All older leaders bowed-down, worshiped.

Jesus appeared-to disciples near sea. How happen?

There, Peter and few other disciples.

Peter: "I go fishing."

Others: "We join."

All got-in boat. Fished all-night, caught nothing. Sunrise, Jesus stand-on shore, but disciples recognized him not.

Jesus: "Your net, throw other side; you catch fish, will."

Disciples did that; caught so-many fish impossible bring net on boat.

One disciple: "Truly Lord!"

Peter heard, jump-in, swim. Same-time, disciples in boat haul-in fish net.
Arrive shore, see fire, fish cooking, also bread.

Jesus: “Bring fish recently caught.”

Peter went-to boat, brought net full fish—how many?—153! Many fish, but net fine, not tear.

Jesus: “Come, eat.” Disciples not ask, “Who you?” because now know (it is) Jesus. Jesus came near, took bread, gave-to-them; same with fish.

This event, third time Jesus with His friends after rose from dead.

Breakfast finished, Jesus-said-to-Peter, “Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these (other people)?”

Peter: “Yes, Lord, you know I love you.”

Jesus: “Feed my lambs.”

Jesus: “Simon, son of John, you love me?”

Peter: “Yes, Lord, you know I love you.”

Jesus: “Take-care-of my sheep.”

Jesus: “Simon, son of John, you love me?”

Peter upset because Jesus asked three times....

Peter: “Lord, you know everything! You KNOW I love you!”

Jesus: ““Feed my sheep. I tell you truly: before you young—dressed self, go where you want. Happen you become old—other people dress you, will; lead you where you don’t-want go.

Narrator: Jesus said this, inform Peter how his death will give glory-to God.

Reading from book name Acts

Paul and Barnabas travelled on from Perga and came-to Antioch in Pisidia. On Sabbath day they entered synagogue and sat down. May Jews become their followers and they spoke to-them and urged them to-keep the grace of God.

Next Sabbath, almost whole city gathered to-hear Word of God. When the Jews saw crowds, they became jealous and countered with violent abuse whatever Paul said. Paul and Barnabas spoke out without fear: “The Word of God has-to-be told-to-you first of all; but since you reject it and prove yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, we now turn to the Gentiles (non-Jews).

The Lord told us: ‘I have made you a light-to all nations, a way of salvation to the ends of the earth.’” The Gentiles were happy to-hear this and received the Word of the Lord with praise. All believe in it were given life everlasting. The Word of the Lord spread throughout that area.

But some of the Jews stirred-up their influential women sympathizers and the leading men of the town, and in that way got a persecution started against Paul and Barnabas.

The Jews finally kicked-them-out-from their land. So, the two shook the dust from their feet to-show protest and went to Iconium. Their disciples filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

Ascension of the Lord

First Reading:

Acts 1:1-11

Reading from book name Acts

Jesus taught apostles with help from Holy Spirit. Jesus explained He suffered, died, but rose again! He proved Himself alive, how? Doing many powerful things. Apostles saw Jesus many times during forty days after He rose. Jesus taught apostles about Kingdom of God.

Jesus told them, "Don't leave Jerusalem. Why? Father promised you something. Wait here to-receive this promise. John baptized people with water, but soon you receive baptism with Holy Spirit, will."

Apostles asked, "Lord, now time You will give Jews their kingdom again?" Jesus answered, "Father is only one who knows exact day and time. But Holy Spirit come-to you, will. You will receive power. Then, you will be My witnesses and tell people about Me in all-the-world."

Jesus finished talking, rose-up into sky. He went into cloud and disappeared. Apostles looked-up but can't see Jesus.

Apostles continued looking-up-to sky. Two men with white clothes stood near them. Two men said, "People from Galilee, why you stand here looking-up-to sky? You finish see Jesus ascend into heaven. He come-back, will; same way you saw Him go." Apostles knelt-down, worship Jesus.

Apostles returned-to Jerusalem filled with joy. Always go-go-to Temple, continue proclaiming Jesus and praising God.

Second Reading:

Hebrews 9:24-28; 10:19-23

Reading from book name Hebrews

Christ not enter holy place people made; instead entered heaven—now stand-before-God praying for us.

Jesus not offer Himself again, again—same-as Jewish priest offers animal blood (every year).

Jesus not need-to sacrifice Himself again, again—no. Jesus offered Self once for the removal of all sin.

People die once, then God judges. Same Christ offered Self once for our sin.

Will come again—not for remove sin—but for save people waiting for Him.

Now, friends, we can enter holy place because Jesus died for us. He opened new way of life when sacrificed His body.

Now, we have wonderful priest, Jesus, in house of God.

We approach with hearts full faith, clean from all evil, our bodies pure. We keep hope strong, because Jesus promised—Himself faithful.

Wisdom of God says: “Lord made me, first-born from His ways, first of His people long-ago. God made me before earth. Before oceans I born, before water fountains or rivers.

Before God made mountains, before hills, I born. Before made earth and fields, before first dirt of world.

Happen God established heavens, I was there. Happen He set-up sky over ocean, made sky above and earth below...Happen God limit sea, so water not overflow...During that, I with God—His helper —made Him happy daily.

I play on His earth, have fun with all creation.”

There was a wedding in Cana.

Mary, Jesus, and followers were invited to the celebration.

During celebration, they ran out of wine.

Mary told Jesus, "They have wine none."

Jesus answer, "Woman, how does your concern involve me? My time has come not-yet."

His mother told the waiters, "Do whatever he tells you."

The Jewish custom for washing involved 6 stone water jars, each between 15-25 gallons.

Jesus said, “Fill those jars with water.” So the waiters willed them to the top.

Then, Jesus said, “Now, take a cup to the head waiter.”

The waiter took a cup, dipped-it-in the water and brought it to the head waiter. The head waiter didn’t know where it was from—only the first waiters knew. When he tasted it, he called the groom.

Waiter say, “Usually people serve the best wine first.

After, people have been drinking for a while, they serve the inferior wine. But you have kept the best wine until now!”

LORD, YOUR TEACHING FULL SPIRIT, LIFE.

Reading from Paul's first letter to Corinthians

The body is one: though it has many parts. They are still united as one body. Same-as Christ. The Spirit inspires all: Jew or Greek, slave or free. For we were all baptize-finish (into) one body, one Church. All-of-us given same Spirit.

The body has many parts. If a foot says, "I'm not a hand. I don't belong-to the body." The ear still belongs-to the body. If the whole body were an eye, body hears—how? If the whole body were an ear, body smell—how? God put all parts of the body how he wants. If all parts are the same, it wouldn't be a true body! Yes, there are many parts; yet one body. The eye can't say to the hand hand: "I don't need you." The head can't tell the feet: "I don't need you." Even the smallest parts that seem unimportant are necessary.

We honor body in different ways. But God has made our bodies, giving honor to all parts. All parts work together with concern for one another. If one part of the body suffers all other parts suffer with it (same-as). If one part receives honor, all parts happy (share joy).

You yourselves are Christ's Body. Each person belongs as a member. God has established the Church with apostles, prophets, teachers, miracle-workers, healers, administrators, and people who speak different languages. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all people teachers or healers? Do all people speak or understand tongues.

Reading from letter from St Paul to Corinthians:

Brothers and sisters, this body, die fade-away will; but if covered with Christ's power, never die! Words from Holy Book say:

“Death itself becomes destroyed.

Death, your victory — where?

Your power for hurt — where?”

We thank God — gives us victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

My brothers — sisters, stand strong.

Commit yourselves to work for Lord — God support you will.

One time, Jesus praying in a place. Happen finish, one disciple asked, "Lord, teach us how-to pray, same-as John his followers." Jesus said, "Happen you pray, say: 'Father in heaven, Your name holy. Your kingdom come, Your wants happen on earth same-as heaven. Give-us today our daily bread. Forgive our sins, same-as we forgive people sin against us. And don't lead-us to temptation.'"

Jesus told His friends: Suppose you have friend, you go-to friend's house midnight, ask: "Please, can I borrow three loaves bread?

Visitor arrived my house, have nothing for feed him." Friend maybe answer, "Bother me, don't! My door locked, family asleep. I can't get-up, give-you what you need." I-tell-you now: Continue ask, God give-you, will. Continue search, you will find. Continue knock, door will open.

Yes, if person continues ask, will receive. If person continues searching, will find. If person continues knocking, door will open.
