Romans 11:13-15, 29-32

Reading from book name Romans

Brothers and Sisters, I speak to you people who are not Jews yourselves. I am an apostle for YOU. I try to make my own people (the Jews) become jealous. Maybe that way I can save some of them.

When the Jewish people rejected God, God became friends with other people. So when God accepts the Jews again, that will be like life after death!

God's gifts and call cannot be taken-away. Before, you refused to obey God. But now you received mercy and love from God. Now the Jews refuse to obey, because God showed mercy to you. All people sometimes refuse to obey God, but God always gives mercy to all people.
