Second Reading

2 Corinthians 1:18-22

A reading from St. Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and Sisters, God true is faithful. My word is not “yes” one time and then change to “no”. Jesus Christ— person I preached to you was not “yes” and “no”. Jesus is always “YES”! all of God’s promises happen truly in Christ. Through Jesus we say “Amen” to God for glory.

God Himself made us strongly united with you in Christ.

God anointed us with a special blessing, and put Holy Spirit in our heart.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Few days later, Jesus went back home. Many people noticed, announced.... ran together. Crowded!!! House full, stand outside door, can't! Jesus preached to people.

Four men came, carried other man himself paralyzed, can't move.

Those five can't go near Jesus, why? —crowd. Idea!

Climbed up roof, opened. Paralyzed man on mat lying down, lowered down.

Happen Jesus see their faith — wow! Told man, “ Young man, your sins finished forgive.”

Some teachers of law sit, ask each other, “Why, Jesus say that? Talking against God. Only God forgive sins, can.”

Jesus knew their thoughts, said, “Why you think that? Which easier to say: ‘Your sins finished forgive’ OR ‘Stand up, pick up mat, walk’ ? But I will prove have power for forgive sins.”

Next Jesus look at paralyzed man, said, “I tell you, stand up, pick up mat, go home.”

Man stand up, mat pick up, walked out. All people watched, amazed, gave glory to God, said, “See this happen before???—
