1 Peter 3: 15-18

A Reading from the letter of St. Peter

Worship the Lord Christ in your hearts. If anyone asks why you have hope, always be ready to reply with respect. Keep your conscience clean, so people who talk against your way of life will be speaking wrong.

If God asks you to suffer, better to suffer for good deeds than to suffer for evil. This is why Christ died for our sins, Jesus—an honest man—died for sinners: so He can lead you to God. Christ's human body was killed, but He received new life in the Spirit.
