Second Reading:

2 Corinthians 4: 13-5:1

Reading from book name Second Corinthians

God raised Jesus from death . . . We know God will raise us with Jesus, same.

God will bring us together with you, and we will stand-before Him. All these things are for you. And grace from God now given-to more, more people, bringing more thanks to God for His glory.

That's why we never become discouraged. Our physical body becomes older and weaker, but our spirit inside becomes new everyday. We have small troubles for a while now, but troubles help-us receive eternal glory . . . glory stronger than troubles.

Now we think0about things we can't see . . . not things we see here. Things we see continue short time; things we can't see continue forever, will.

We know our body same-as tent we live in here on earth. This body become destroyed, will. But when happens, God will have new home for us. Not home for here earth; instead, home in heaven . . . continue forever, will.
