Reading from Letter to Hebrews.

Brothers and Sisters —

Every Jewish high priest chosen from among people, represents them before God. Priest offer-to-God gifts and sacrifices for sins.

Himself patient, understanding with sinners — why? — himself weak, same-as them. Priest offers sacrifice for his own sins, same.

Becoming high priest true honor. No person choose himself for this work. God must call person, came God called Aaron long-ago.

Same with Christ. Christ not choose glory for Himself becoming high priest . . . no. God chose Christ, said: “You My son; today I become Your Father.” Also said: “You true priest forever, same first priest long-ago.”
