Revelation 7: 2-4, 9-14

Reading from prophet name Revelation

I, John saw angel come from east with God stamp-mark (seal). Angel cry-out to angels four. Angels four have power, can destroy land and sea. “Don’t hurt land, sea, or trees. Must put sign on people that serve God.”

I see many people receive stamp-mark (seal). 144,000 from Israel group, each family.

Then I saw many, many people, impossible count: people from every country on earth. They stand in front Lamb (Jesus). Dress robes, long and white, hold palm branches.

One elder said, “These people live time much suffering; robes washed with blood from Lamb, robes become white. Reason now people here in front God throne.

Day and night serve in temple; God protect them, will.

People experience hunger, thirst again? Never! Host sun touch them? Not! Why? Lamb (Jesus) take-care-of them will; lead them water, itself-water give life; their tears, God will wipe-away.

Reading from gospel writer Matthew

(response) GLORY TO YOU, LORD (+ forehead, +lips, +heart, +hands)

Jesus saw crowds. He went up mountain.

Jesus sat down and disciples gathered around.

Jesus began to teach:

Blessed poor in spirit;

kingdom of God belong them.

Blessed sad people;

they will receive comfort.

Blessed humble people;

they will receive land.

Blessed people who want become holy;
they will become filled.

Blessed people that show mercy;
they will receive mercy also.

Blessed people with pure hearts;
they will see God.

Blessed peacemakers;
they sons of God.

Blessed people that suffer for holiness;
kingdom God belongs to them.

Blessed you . . . when people insult you and say bad things against you because you believe in Me. Rejoice! Because you will receive wonderful things in heaven!

This gospel from Lord.
