Owe nothing to other people. But you will always owe love to each-other.

Person who loves other people obeys all God's law.

Commandments say, "don't do sin adultery: don't kill; don't steal; don't want wrong things." These and all commandments really summarize one rule: What??? "Love other people same-as you love yourself."

Love never does anything wrong to another person. Love means obey all God's law.
