Jesus and followers go down mountain and go through Galilee without people know where they go. Jesus taught followers. He said, "Son of Man will be given-to people, they kill him. Three days later, rise will." Followers not understand what Jesus meant, but afraid ask him.

Jesus and followers go into house. Jesus asked, "What you talk about on way home?" They became quiet, because they arguing about who most important person. Jesus sat-down with twelve apostles.

Jesus said, "If anyone want first Mose important, he must become last.
That person must serve all other people."

Then Jesus took small child and held him in arms. Jesus said, "If person accepts child in my name, then that person accepts me also. And if person accepts me (Jesus), that person also accept God sent me."
